“ Its been a long time since I saw Mrs. G, but on all occasions she was always very warm and welcoming. I always thought she was strong minded, and certainly intelligent...traits that she surely passed on to her sons (especially my buddy Len). She'll live on through you guys, and through her grandchildren. My thoughts are with you this week, especially as I am visiting my own mother. - Nick

“ You were a rock of strength for many with a heart and caring soul for those less fortunate. I loved your laugh, sense of humor and the fact that you were very transparent about how you felt and your opinions. I love you to the moon and back and miss you my bbff forever!

“ Anita, was my Godmother my sounding board and most of all the reason of sanity in our family. She was a "Tough Broad" with the kindest of hearts. She did the unthinkable and impossible task of staying with Herbie until the end. Anyone who has had to deal with a loved one who has Alzheimers would understand how strong she had to be.

I remember being a kid and when my parents were away my sister and I would be at Uncle Barry's and Aunt Anita's. I was thrown into the pit with Lee, Le and Jay and naturally there were loud disturbances during the night. IT wasn't Uncle Barry who came in it was Anita. It only took one visit and we settled down. Being the oldest I got the "Anita stare" it was enough for me. We all knew she loved us all, She loved here grand children, great grand children, friends, in-laws and outlaws.

She will be in our hearts and prayers forever
