“ On large construction projects issues can grow quickly. Tony was always a calming influence who could get to the point and keep the gears turning, while respecting each persons dignity. He was indeed a brother and will be missed.

“ “Let none presume To wear an underserved dignity. O that estates, degrees, and offices Were not derived corruptly, and that clear honour Were purchased by the merit of the wearer.”

William Shakespeare

Anthony was that wearer. His honour, dignity, and character reflected a life well lived.
So grateful for the happy memories shared with Tony and his devoted wife Lynette.

May you Rest In Peace and have Eternal Happiness.”

“ So sorry to hear of Tony's passing. The last time I was in his company, was when he was working after retirement, as a golf course ranger(just for free golf i'm sure). He always had a smile on his face. I knew him some 40 years, since I am an also an IBEW member. My most vivid memory of him was. when I was an Electrical Contractor. Tony would be the Only 211/351 agent that would call me with estimating leads. He got it! He knew that the more work that I secured, the more work our brotherhood would have. Rest in Peace Brother. The first time I met Tony, was when we work together at the Salem nuclear power plant, and then years later I work for Tony down at the casinos in Atlantic City.
