“ I had the privilege to get to know Dot (& Lyman) over the past ten years. They soon became my "adopted parents". Their love was genuine and unconditional. It was hard on Dot after her love went home to be with the Lord, but she soon became active within the church with her book club and taking care of our church library. My adoptive "Mom" will be missed greatly but I am so thankful that she is God's hands. She fought the good fight and now the Lord will say "well done my good and faithful servant". Love you "Mom"
