“ You are in my prayers without ceasing. Everett was a wonderful man and we so enjoyed the times we got to spend with him. Our special meal times, health meetings and visits to your house. I KNOW he is having a joyous time in Heaven with our Lord and Saviour and all the loved ones who have gone before. Jean, you are in my prayers every minute of the day. The other night I was awake until 4am and I was praying for you. Roger and Becky, we enjoyed meeting you both, and Ginny and Will, I look forward to the day when we can meet you. Please know we are both praying for all of you, with a sure knowledge that God is answering our prayers and undergirding you with His strength, peace and comfort. Soon and very soon, we will all be with Everett again. He will be saving us a seat at the table!! the Marriage supper of the Lamb. What joy we have ahead of us. Love you and praying, Shirley and Chip
