“ I have wonderful memories of Mary and Bill when they stayed with me in England and of their many years of friendship with my parents. Mary was always so gracious and interested in other's welfare. She was a beautiful soul.

“ I offer my condolences to Gina, Ro, Tom, Bern and Peggy and to your families as you grieve the loss of your precious Mom. Aunt Mary was such a sweet and friendly lady and so open and interested and loving to others. I cherish the memories our parents generation created for us. Uncle Will married so well and together his and Mary's legacy lives on in their children and grandchildren.
May God bless you and comfort you and fill your lives with memories of the great times! Your family is loved by so many!
