

Richard T Page

April 26, 2018

Page, Richard T., 86, of Elwood, NJ passed away at his home on April 26, 2018. Rich was predeceased by his parents, Myrtle and Howard Page of Magnolia, NJ. He is survived by his wife, Joy (Ramer) and his children, Richard Jr. (Sharon) of Manahawkin, Scott (Judy) of Egg Harbor, Cathy Zobel (Brian) of Haddonfield and Annette Hultin (Carl) of Virginia Beach, VA. He is also survived by his grandchildren, Chrissy Scully (Glen), Richard III, Brandon (Tori), Paige, Christopher and Emma and great-granddaughter, Brittany (Mason) Musick. Rich is also survived by his brother, Howard "Tom" Page (Joan) of Barrington and sister, Loretta Riedel of Magnolia, and many nieces and nephews.

Rich grew up in Barrington, served in the Coast Guard Reserves in Cape May and made his career working first at the family business, Page Brothers Lumber in Barrington and then Edmund Scientific, where he worked until he retired. Rich was an artist and was always building or fixing things long before the Internet or YouTube came along. Rich built his home in Elwood, where he lived for the past 60 years.

Up until health issues began to slow him down four years ago, Rich could often be seen riding his bike, roller skating, cruising on his motorcycle or in his convertible, going to the beach in Brigantine and Cape May, or taking long hikes at Batsto. Rich enjoyed the simple things in life – his family, nature, physical activity, the wind in his hair and a big bowl of ice cream.

A memorial service will be held at a later date at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that donations may be made to the South Jersey Horse Rescue, 5745 Pleasant Mills Road, Egg Harbor NJ, 08215 or the Salvation Army of Atlantic City.
